Learner Outcomes

Teacher Professional Development

- Teachers will become familiar with Project based learning and how it differs from plain Projects. (Knowledge, Application)
- Teachers will have hands-on experience with the new tools that they will use in their classrooms. (Application, Synthesis)
- Teachers will come up with cross-curricular lessons and evaluations for those lessons. (Synthesis, Application, Analysis)
- Teachers will consistently evaluate their progress through the year. (Evaluation, Syntheis)

Student Training

- Students will get orientation to their new technology and demonstrate that they have mastered basic skills. (Knowledge)
- Students will demonstrate acceptable use with the new technology and freedoms that they have. (Application, Analysis)
- Students will build comprehensive projects that the community will see and many of the will be problem based to try to accomplish community goals. (Evaluation, Synthesis, Application)

Expected Outcomes

- Students will be able to communicate through email, wiki's, blogs, and online chat. (Application)
- Students will be able to work on online documents collaboratively. (Application, Synthesis)
- Students will be able to create their work using free open source tools that will be available to them no matter the computer platform. (Synthesis, Comprehension, Application)