New Year, New Semester, New Opportunities...

We hope that the break presented you with sometime to relax, reflect, and you are all set to start anew. The HLLC Team challenges you this semester to further explore your potential, grow as a scholar, and activate or keep burning that fire within that makes you the change-agent that are.

The HLLC looks forward to an exciting semester as we continue to witness your growth, solicit new courses and mentors from our faculty, welcome a new class, and celebrate our first graduates, just to name a few. Be on the lookout for new and exciting projects and opportunities!

As you make your final preparations for the semester please remember the following:

- Classes start Tuesday, January 16th.
- Term Bills: You must pay or confirm you attendance by the due date even if you have a $0.00 balance. You must also waive the RU Insurance

If you have personal insurance every semester. To confirm your attendance CLICK HERE.

- FAFSA: The deadline to renew your FAFSA for the 2018-2019 academic year is January 15th. Failure to complete your FAFSA by the 15th will result in the loss of Financial Aid. The Office of Financial Aid has a lab to assist students that need assistance. FAFSA Renewal
- Mentor Meetings: Please remember that your bi-weekly mentor meetings are a requirement of the HLLC. Your attendance and participation is expected at all meetings. Your mentor meeting times and location will be sent out shortly. Please check your emails regularly.
- Book Vouchers: Information regarding book vouchers will be sent shortly.
- Remember that You Represent More than Just Yourself: This means that wherever you go, you are representing something much bigger than yourself. As HLLC Scholars, you carry the responsibility to uphold the values, mission and vision of this community. Remember that your actions impact others, your actions cause judgement, and all actions have a consequence, whether that be good or bad.

We look forward to seeing you this spring and working with you as a team to achieve your goals. Information regarding community meetings, special events, and other opportunities will be sent via email and posted on our website. Please keep us informed of any special activities or events you are part of; we want to celebrate you.

Enjoy the last remaining days of your break and we look forward to a successful spring semester.

Sincerely,

HLLC Deans
